Since parents are the “first and foremost educators in faith,” it is so important that they are involved in their child’s sacramental preparation. With this truth in mind, we look forward to sharing in this special time of formation with you, and in order to make this experience the best possible for your child, we ask that you let us know if there are any unique family circumstances of which we should be aware...

It is the policy of the Diocese of Orlando that all sacraments be received within the Parish to which one belongs:

Are you a REGISTERED member of St. Charles Borromeo Parish? Yes ____ (if yes, Envelope #____) No ____

Mass is the weekly gathering of the Catholic Community (Please read and sign the following statement):

I understand that sacramental preparation at St. Charles Borromeo is designed to promote, support, and encourage participation in the Mass by the entire family; Therefore, I (We) accept the responsibility of bringing my (our) child to Mass each week and to observe all Holy Days of Obligation throughout the year

Parent/Guardian Signature(s) _____
